Patricia Smink Rogowski has 30 years of experience in patent, trademark and copyright prosecution and counseling, and in intellectual property litigation in federal district courts and in appeals to the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Pat is a Delaware and Pennsylvania bar member admitted to practice before the District Courts in Delaware and Pennsylvania, as well as the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. Pat also is registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Pat received her B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from Lehigh University with highest honors and her J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania. She has been selected as a leading Patent and Trademark Practitioner in Delaware for several consecutive years by Chambers USA, Best Lawyers and Super Lawyers, and was selected as one of the Top 250 Women in IP in the U.S. She has been named the 2017 Best Lawyers “Lawyer of the Year” for Patent Litigation in the Philadelphia metro area.

Prior to opening Rogowski Law, Pat was a partner at Panitch Schwarze for three years, where she helped to launch and lead the firm’s Delaware office. For 27 years before that, Pat was an associate and then partner in the Wilmington, Delaware office of Connolly Bove Lodge & Hutz LLP, which later merged to form Novak Druce Connolly Bove + Quigg LLP. Pat served as Hiring Attorney and was on the Management Committee for several terms at Connolly Bove.
